ALLEGATIONS:

On 18 Mar 08, at 1754 hours, Sgt. Darren Easterday registered this complaint on behalf of the complainant, [REDACTED] with IPRA Intake Aide Denise Stewart. The complainant, [REDACTED] alleged that on or about 12/13 Mar 08, at approximately between 1100 and 1200 hours, at the location of [REDACTED], Officer Duane Gordon: 1) pushed her down on a bed each time she tried to get up, 2) grabbed her by the ankles and yanked her toward him, and 3) had her perform oral sex on him. It is alleged that from November 2007 through April 2008, during their relationship, Officer Duane Gordon: 4) used his position as a police officer for his own personal gain to have [REDACTED] become involved in a sexual relationship, and 5) dominated and manipulated her for his sexual satisfaction. It is alleged that on or about December 2007 and during their relationship sometime on or about December 2007, Officer Duane Gordon: 6) stated words to the effect of, "Don't ever fuck over me cause I'm known as a bad motherfucker on the street," and 7) threatened to kill her and her former boyfriend.

INVESTIGATION:

Sgt. Darren Easterday submitted an Initiation Report and indicated that the complainant, [REDACTED] made allegations against Officer Duane Gordon. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Easterday that while Officer Gordon was at her residence they were intimate. After they had sex, [REDACTED] made a comment to Officer Gordon and he became agitated. However, [REDACTED] could not recall what the comment was, but the comment lead to a verbal altercation between them. Officer Gordon then grabbed [REDACTED] by her shoulders and pushed her onto the bed. Officer Gordon made aggressive statements that [REDACTED] could not recall but felt very intimidated. When [REDACTED] attempted to get off the bed, Officer Gordon grabbed her lower legs tightly and preventing her from getting up. Officer Gordon released his hold on [REDACTED] and left her residence.

[REDACTED] was taken to the [REDACTED] on 15 Mar 08 because she did not feel well. [REDACTED] was admitted for psychiatric evaluation, due to bizarre behavior and possible psychosis. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Easterday that she was prescribed medication for depression, and suffers from severe migraine headaches.

According to Sgt. Easterday, [REDACTED] was vague while making the allegations and would make unusual statements, such as; "I marked the day this happened on my calendar because it was a special day." [REDACTED] was asked why the day was special and she responded that she was too embarrassed to say. A case report was completed and an ET photographed [REDACTED] (Att. 4)

In a statement with IPRA [REDACTED] stated on 09 Apr 08 that she and Officer Duane Gordon were in a boyfriend/girlfriend relationship for a little over five months. [REDACTED] stated that she first met Officer Gordon in the early spring of 2007 when he approached her as she crossed the street at 42nd and Cottage Grove. Officer Gordon asked [REDACTED] for her telephone number but she declined to give it to him by stating that she lived in a CHA building and she would be harassed if she spoke to the police. Officer Gordon gave [REDACTED] his telephone number and told her to call him because he wanted to talk to her.

[REDACTED] called Officer Gordon sometime in November 2007 because she was having a problem with a person who had broken into her apartment on 28 Aug 02. Officer Gordon and his partner arrived at [REDACTED] apartment and she told him about the break in on 28 Aug 02. Officer Gordon and his partner left [REDACTED] apartment. Officer Gordon returned the next day by himself in his personal vehicle. Officer Gordon told [REDACTED] how beautiful she was and made charming remarks to her. Officer Gordon made two other visits to [REDACTED] apartment by himself and on the third visit; he began his sexual advances toward her. Thereafter, the majority of the time Officer Gordon arrived at [REDACTED] apartment they had sex. According to

[REDACTED] Officer Gordon would call her and tell her to put something sexy on for him when he arrived at her apartment. [REDACTED] stated that she felt that Officer Gordon used his position of a police officer to get her to be involved in a sexual relationship with him. Officer Gordon told [REDACTED] on several occasions, "Don't fuck over me cause I'm known as a bad motherfucker on the street." At the end of Dec 07, Officer Gordon threatened to kill her and her ex-boyfriend. According to [REDACTED] Officer Gordon was dominating and manipulating her for his sexual satisfaction. [REDACTED] and Officer Gordon's relationship was predominately of a sexual nature

[REDACTED] stated that on 13 Mar 08, at approximately between 1100 and 1200 hours, the only things she remembers was being in her bedroom on her bed. Each time she would try to get up, Officer Gordon would put his hands on her shoulders and push her back down on her bed. Officer Gordon grabbed her by her ankles and yanked her toward him. According to [REDACTED] she performed oral sex on Officer Gordon but she could not remember if she did so willingly or if he forced her to do it. [REDACTED] further stated that the next thing she remembered was waking up in the hospital. [REDACTED] stated that she sustained bruises on her ankles, shoulders, and her vaginal area was very sore. [REDACTED] sought medical and psychological treatment at the [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] also filed an Order of Protection against Officer Gordon. (Att. 9)

The Case Report and Supplementary Report gave in essence a similar account of the incident as indicated in Sgt. Easterday's Initiation Report. In addition, the Supplementary Report indicates that [REDACTED] refused to prosecute but also refused to sign a refusal to prosecute form. The Order of Protection filed by [REDACTED] was vacated on 27 Jun 08. This case was classified as exceptionally cleared-closed based on victim's refusal to prosecute. (Atts. 5 & 34)

[REDACTED] filed an Emergency Order of Protection on 24 Mar 08 against Officer Duane Gordon. The Order stipulated that Officer Gordon was to have no contact by any means, no 3rd party contact and he was not to come within 1500 feet of [REDACTED] (Att.15)

[REDACTED] filed the Petition for Order of Protection on 24 Mar 08 and alleged that on 12 Mar 08 at about 1000 am or 1200am the, "Only have memory of Duane Gordon pushing me down on my bed and grabbing me by my ankles. I had bruises on my shoulders and legs. I was taken to the hospital and don't remember everything that happened to me and having oral sex. He has always been very controlling with me. I had to call him when I left the house and returned home. And he threatened to kill my previous boyfriend and myself.

[REDACTED] filed an Order and Amended Petition in which she stated in part that, "On or about 21 Mar 08, Duane Gordon pushed me on my bed and grabbed me by my ankle, forcefully, causing pain and bruising. Then he forced me to perform oral sex. On 15 Mar 08, I was taken to the hospital for abuse and paranoia." [REDACTED] further indicted that she could return to her residence because she was in fear for her life. Also, the social worker from the hospital advised her family not to return home or be alone. (Att. 16)

On 27 Jun 08 a court Hearing was scheduled and heard concerning the Emergency Order of Protection filed against Officer Duane Gordon. Officer Gordon told the judge that he met [REDACTED] in a professional capacity and was never intimately involved with her. He further stated that the intimate relationship as a figment of her imagination. [REDACTED] daughter [REDACTED] was excused from testifying because she never met Officer Gordon or saw him with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] only knew what [REDACTED] told her. [REDACTED] sister of Officer Gordon and his fiancée [REDACTED] were not called to testify because they did not witness any interaction between Officer Gordon and [REDACTED]. The judge heard the case and based on the evidence presented, the Emergency Order of Protection was vacated. (Atts. 17, 18 & 28)

Photographs taken of [REDACTED] by an evidence technician on 18 Mar 08 depict no apparent injury. (Atts. 20-27)

The medical records of [REDACTED] indicate that she was admitted to the [REDACTED] on 15 Mar 08, at 1300 hours with her chief complaint being, "I feel like I'm losing my mind." [REDACTED] was suffering from a major depressive disorder with a new onset of psychotic symptoms over the last three days. Per [REDACTED] daughter who does not live with her, [REDACTED] was in her usual state of health until three days ago when she took some Mucinex cold medication for cold symptoms such as congestion and nonproductive cough. [REDACTED] daughter states that the [REDACTED] has been acting very paranoid and calling her throughout the day. [REDACTED] has been telling daughter that she thinks people are out to kill her and that someone may have poisoned her. [REDACTED] was not able to explain this further. [REDACTED] cannot give any reason that people would be out to get her. [REDACTED] daughter states that patient has not slept at all for the last two nights and had hardly been eating anything. [REDACTED] daughter thought that [REDACTED] was unable to care for herself last night and brought [REDACTED] to her home.

[REDACTED] slept in daughter's bed and repeatedly expressed paranoid thoughts. [REDACTED] also endorsed hearing some voices over the last few days that she cannot explain and could not elaborate on what they were saying. She denies hearing voices in the past. She denies any visual hallucinations or ideas of reference. [REDACTED] daughter stated that [REDACTED] has some history of manic symptoms such as mood lability, irritability, expansive mood, high energy, and increased goal-directed behavior in the past but could not give details. On exam, [REDACTED] was acting very strangely. She appeared to be extremely tired and would only answer some questions. She repeated phrases such as "I have to go home" and "I can't do it" several times.

[REDACTED] was admitted to the acute inpatient psychiatric unit and placed on self harm, suicidal and elopement precautions. Because [REDACTED] appeared to be catatonic at first, she received Ativan 2mg with good response. On admission she also appeared to be psychotic. [REDACTED] was seen by the primary team on 17 Mar 08. [REDACTED] showed symptoms of depression such as, feeling down, poor energy and concentration with excessive worries about her boyfriend who has been physically abusing her, but no psychosis. [REDACTED] also showed bruises on her shins and shoulder. [REDACTED] felt hopeless of the current situation. She did consider restraining order at this time, but felt that paper really is not going to protect her. At this time, [REDACTED] was started on Sertraline 50mg Po daily. Hospital personnel spoke with [REDACTED] mother and daughter, who agreed that [REDACTED] boyfriend has been abusing her. [REDACTED] family reported that they have been suspecting the abuse for while; however [REDACTED] never said anything about this until this hospitalization. Family agreed to take [REDACTED] home. [REDACTED] will be discharged in stable condition in care of her family. [REDACTED] is not suicidal or homicidal, has no delusions and she is able to take care of her basic needs. (Att. 33)

In a statement with IPRA, accused Officer Duane Gordon stated that he met [REDACTED] during an investigation that he and his partner were conducting in the building at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that is near where she lived at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told Officer Gordon that she had information concerning the matter that he was investigating and she wanted to speak with him in private. Officer Gordon gave [REDACTED] his business card that includes his cell phone number.

On 17 Dec 07 [REDACTED] called Officer Gordon on his cell phone and told him that she had information about the investigation and wanted to speak with him. Officer Gordon and his partner arrived at [REDACTED] apartment and when she did not provide any information, they left the apartment.

Officer Gordon further stated that after 17 Dec 07, [REDACTED] pursued him via telephone because she wanted to become involved in a sexual relationship with him. During several telephone conversations initiated by [REDACTED], Officer Gordon told her that he was not interested in any type of relationship with her because he was engaged to be married. According to Officer Gordon, his rejection of a relationship with [REDACTED] caused her to become angry with him. On at least one occasion, [REDACTED] called Officer Gordon and screamed and yelled profanities at him when he rejected her request to come to her apartment. [REDACTED] would also telephone Officer Gordon and tell him what she had on and what she could do him sexually. According to Officer Gordon, he told [REDACTED] that he was not interested and for her to stop calling him. Officer Gordon denied the allegations. (Att. 41)

CONCLUSION:

Allegations #1-7: Not Sustained—This investigation revealed insufficient evidence to corroborate or refute the allegations as made by [REDACTED]. In addition, the allegations made by [REDACTED] in the Petition for Order of Protection clearly state that the incident occurred on 12 Mar 08. An Amended Petition was filed that indicated in part that, “On or about on 3/12/08...,” and on page 2 of the Order, it indicated in part that, “On 2/13/08..” that she did not want him to come over anymore and that she wanted to be free of him. The medical records indicate that [REDACTED] was admitted to the [REDACTED] acute inpatient psychiatric unit on 15 Mar 08. [REDACTED] chief complaint was, “I feel like I’m losing my mind.” [REDACTED] suffered from a major depressive disorder with a new onset of psychotic symptoms over the last three days. The photographs of [REDACTED] taken on 18 Mar 08 revealed no apparent injury. Based on the available evidence, no witnesses to the events, and the inconsistent dates of occurrence, there is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove the allegations as alleged by [REDACTED]
